ADDRESS AND TELEPHONE INFORMATION

Rule 14-507 of the Utah Supreme Court's Rules of Lawyer Discipline and Disability requires the Bar to maintain a roster of lawyers including their current law office, home addresses, and telephone numbers. The required information is on the second page of the form. E-mail address information is optional and will be available to the public if you so choose.

CLIENT SECURITY FUND

The Client Security Fund was established by the Utah Supreme Court to help reimburse losses to clients caused by a lawyer's theft, embezzlement or refusal to return unearned fees. Claims are investigated by the Fund Committee prior to consideration by the Bar Commission. Client Security Fund rules require that each active lawyer may be assessed an amount not to exceed $20 at the start of each licensing year.

LICENSES IN OTHER STATES

Rule 14-516 of the Utah Supreme Court's Rules of Lawyer Discipline and Disability requires the Bar to report attorney discipline to other states where a Utah attorney may be licensed. You must provide the Bar with information about your other licenses.

TAX NOTICE

Pursuant to Internal Revenue Code 6033(e)(1), no income tax deduction shall be allowed for that portion of annual fees allocable to lobbying expenditures. For the tax year 2007, that amount is 1.13% of the mandatory licensing fee.
