

Rule 29.

Effective July 16, 2013 under Rule 11-105(5).
Subject to change after the comment period.

1 Rule 29. Oral argument.

2 (a)(1) ~~In General~~ In cases before the Supreme Court. Oral argument will be held 3 unless the Supreme Court determines that it will not aid the decisional process.

4 (a)(2) In cases before the Court of Appeals. Oral argument will be allowed in all 5 cases in which the court determines that oral argument will significantly aid the 6 decisional process.

7 (b)(1) Notice by Supreme Court; request for cancellation or continuance. Not later 8 than 30 days prior to the date on which a case is calendared, the clerk shall give notice
9 of the time and place of oral argument, and the time to be allowed each side. If the 10 parties to a case believe oral argument will not benefit the court, they may file a 11 stipulated motion to cancel oral argument not later than 15 days from the date of the 12 clerk's notice. The court will grant the motion only if it determines that oral argument 13 will not aid the decisional process. A motion to continue oral argument must be 14 supported by (1) a stipulation of all parties or a statement that the movant was unable 15 to obtain such a stipulation, and (2) an affidavit of counsel specifying the grounds for 16 the motion. A motion to continue filed not later than 15 days from the date of the clerk's 17 notice may be granted on a showing of good cause. A motion to continue filed 18 thereafter will be granted only on a showing of exceptional circumstances.

19 (b)(2) Notice by clerk and request by a party for argument Court of Appeals; waiver
20 of argument; continuance. Not later than 30 days prior to the ~~term of court in which a~~
21 ~~case is to be submitted~~ date on which a case is calendared, the clerk shall give notice
22 to all parties that oral argument is to be permitted, the time and place of oral argument,
23 and the time to be allowed each side. Any party may waive oral argument by filing a 24 written waiver with the clerk not later than 15 days from the date of the clerk's notice. If 25 one party waives oral argument and any other party does not, the party waiving oral 26 argument may nevertheless present oral argument. A request to continue oral argument
27 or for additional argument time must be made by motion. A motion to continue oral 28 argument must be supported by (1) a stipulation of all parties or a statement that the 29 movant was unable to obtain such a stipulation, and (2) an affidavit of counsel

30 specifying the grounds for the motion. A motion to continue filed not later than 15 days
31 from the date of the clerk's notice may be granted on a showing of good cause. A 32 motion to continue filed thereafter will be granted only on a showing of exceptional 33 circumstances.

34 (c) Order of argument. The appellant shall argue first and the appellee shall 35 respond. The appellant may reply to the appellee's argument if appellant reserved part 36 of appellant's time for this purpose. Such argument in reply shall be limited to 37 answering responding to points made by appellee in appellee's oral argument and 38 answering any questions from the court.

39 (d) Cross and separate appeals. A cross or separate appeal shall be argued with the 40 initial appeal at a single argument, unless the court otherwise directs. If a case involves 41 a separate appeal, the plaintiff in the action below shall be deemed the appellant for the 42 purpose of this rule unless the parties otherwise agree or the court otherwise directs. If 43 separate appellants support the same argument, care shall be taken to avoid 44 duplication of argument. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, in cases involving a 45 cross-appeal the appellant, as determined pursuant to Rule 24(g), shall open the 46 argument and present only the issues raised in the appellant's opening brief. The 47 appellee/cross-appellant shall then present an argument which answers the appellant's 48 issues and addresses original issues raised by the cross-appeal. The appellant shall 49 then present an argument which replies to the appellee/cross-appellant's answer to the 50 appellant's issues and answers the issues raised on the cross-appeal. The 51 appellee/cross-appellant may then present an argument which is confined to a reply to 52 the appellant's answer to the issues raised by the cross-appeal. The court shall grant 53 reasonable requests, for good cause shown, for extended argument time.

54 (e) Non-appearance of parties. If the appellee fails to appear to present argument,
55 the court will hear argument on behalf of the appellant, if present. If the appellant fails
56 to appear, the court may hear argument on behalf of the appellee, if present. If neither 57 party appears, the case may be decided on the briefs, or the court may direct that the 58 case be rescheduled for argument.

Rule 29.

Effective July 16, 2013 under Rule 11-105(5).
Subject to change after the comment period.

59 (f) Submission on briefs. By agreement of the parties, a case may be submitted for 60 decision on the briefs, but the court may direct that the case be argued.

61 (g) Use of physical exhibits at argument; removal. If physical exhibits other than 62 documents are to be used at the argument, counsel shall arrange to have them placed 63 in the courtroom before the court convenes on the date of the argument. After the 64 argument, counsel shall remove the exhibits from the courtroom unless the court
65 otherwise directs. If exhibits are not reclaimed by counsel within a reasonable time after 66 notice is given by the clerk, they shall be destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the 67 clerk shall think best.

68 Advisory Committee Notes

69 ~~The former practice was to presume that argument was waived unless requested.~~ 70 ~~The amendments change the practice to presume that argument is requested unless~~ 71 ~~expressly waived. The rule incorporates the oral argument priority classification~~
72 ~~formerly found in the administrative orders of the Supreme Court. The 2012~~
73 ~~amendment to rule 29(a) was intended to reflect current court practice.~~

74 The 2013 amendments to rules 29(a) and (b) reflect current practices. The 75 amendment to Rule 29(c) clarifies that this provision is not intended to place any 76 limitation on the scope or timing of the questions posed by an appellate court during 77 argument.
