84 attorney experienced in providing services to self-represented parties, two law school 85 representatives, the state law librarian, and two community representatives.

86 (1)(C) Standing committees shall meet as necessary to accomplish their work but a minimum 87 of once every six months. Standing committees shall report to the Council as necessary but a 88 minimum of once every six months. Council members may not serve, participate or vote on 89 standing committees. Standing committees may invite participation by others as they deem 90 advisable, but only members designated by this rule may make motions and vote. All members 91 designated by this rule may make motions and vote unless otherwise specified. Standing

92 committees may form subcommittees as they deem advisable. The continued existence and 93 composition of standing committees shall be reviewed annually.

94 (2) Ad hoc committees. The Council may form ad hoc committees or task forces to consider 95 topical issues outside the scope of the standing committees and to recommend rules or 96 resolutions concerning such issues. The Council may set and extend a date for the termination of 97 any ad hoc committee. The Council may invite non-Council members to participate and vote on 98 ad hoc committees. Ad hoc committees shall keep the Council informed of their activities. Ad 99 hoc committees may form sub-committees as they deem advisable. Ad hoc committees shall 100 disband upon issuing a final report or recommendations to the Council, upon expiration of the 101 time set for termination, or upon the order of the Council.

102 (3) General provisions.

103 (3)(A) Appointment process.

104 (3)(A)(i) Administrator's responsibilities. The state court administrator shall select a member 105 of the administrative staff to serve as the administrator for committee appointments. Except as 106 otherwise provided in this rule, the administrator shall:

107 (3)(A)(i)(a) announce expected vacancies on standing committees two months in advance 108 and announce vacancies on ad hoc committees in a timely manner;

109 (3)(A)(i)(b) for new appointments, obtain an indication of willingness to serve from each 110 prospective appointee and information regarding the prospective appointee's present and past 111 committee service;

112 (3)(A)(i)(c) for reappointments, obtain an indication of willingness to serve from the 113 prospective reappointee, the length of the prospective reappointee's service on the committee, the 114 attendance record of the prospective reappointee, the prospective reappointee's contributions to 115 the committee, and the prospective reappointee's other present and past committee assignments; 116 and

117 (3)(A)(i)(d) present a list of prospective appointees and reappointees to the Council and 118 report on recommendations received regarding the appointment of members and chairs.

119 (3)(A)(ii) Council's responsibilities. The Council shall appoint the chair of each committee.
120 Whenever practical, appointments shall reflect geographical, gender, cultural and ethnic 121 diversity.

122 (3)(B) Terms. Except as otherwise provided in this rule, standing committee members shall 123 serve staggered three year terms. Standing committee members shall not serve more than two 124 consecutive terms on a committee unless the Council determines that exceptional circumstances 125 exist which justify service of more than two consecutive terms.

126 (3)(C) Members of standing and ad hoc committees may receive reimbursement for actual 127 and necessary expenses incurred in the execution of their duties as committee members.

128 (3)(D) The Administrative Office shall serve as secretariat to the Council's committees.
