1. WELCOME AND APPROVAL OF MINUTES: (Chief Justice Matthew B. Durrant)

Chief Justice Matthew B. Durrant welcomed everyone to the meeting.

Motion: Judge Toomey moved to approve the minutes from the June 27, 2016 Judicial Council meeting. Mr. Lund seconded the motion, and it passed unanimously.

2. CHAIR'S REPORT: (Chief Justice Matthew B. Durrant)

Chief Justice Durrant provided an update on the work of the newly created ad hoc committee addressing the matter of jury trials in small claims cases. The ad hoc committee has developed interim rules for consideration.

3. ADMINISTRATOR'S REPORT: (Daniel J. Becker)

Mr. Becker reported on the following items:
Judge of the Year Award. Judge Dane Nolan was awarded the Judge of the Year Award at the Bar's 2016 Summer Convention.

Judicial Retirement. Judge Maughan has announced his upcoming retirement, effective December 1.

Justice Court Administrator. Interviews for the justice court administrator position will be held on July 20.

Case Filing Update. Mr. Becker reviewed the year-end case filings. Overall, district court case filings reflect a 5% decrease, juvenile court referrals reflect a 10% decrease, and justice court case filings reflect a 7% decrease. No data was provided for the Appellate Courts at this time.

Questions were asked regarding the continued decrease in case filings. Mr. Becker mentioned that national studies are currently being conducted regarding case filing trends nationally. Once information from the study becomes available, Mr. Becker will review the report with the Council.

Mr. Becker mentioned that a Civil Justice Reform Initiative Report will be provided later in the week at the Conference of Chief Justice and State Court Administrators Annual Meeting.

Legislative Update. Mr. Schwermer provided a legislative update on the special session held on July 13. He highlighted the following: 1) 6 of 9 bills were considered, 2) SB 3004 – Continuing Care Retirement Community Amendments, 3) SB 3001 – Controlled Substance Database Modifications, 4) HB 3004 – Criminal Justice Reinvestment Amendments, 5) HB 3003 – Unmanned Aircraft Amendments, 6) SB 3003 – Judicial Nominating Commissions – Amendments, and 7) HB 3005 – Grandparent Rights Amendments.

Budget and Planning Session and Judicial Council Meeting. These meetings will be held on August 19 at the Matheson Courthouse.

4. COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Management Committee Report:

Chief Justice Durrant reported that the Management Committee meeting minutes accurately reflect the issues discussed. The items needing to be addressed by the Council have been placed on today's agenda.

Liaison Committee Report:

No meeting was held in July.

Policy and Planning Meeting:

Judge Parkin mentioned a rule is on today's agenda for final action.

Bar Commission Report:

Mr. Lund provided highlights from the Bar's 2016 Summer Convention to include: 1) attendance was at 360, 2) Professor Erwin Chemerinsky provided a keynote address entitled How the Supreme Court has Made Your Rights Unenforceable, and 3) Mr. Dean Strang, an attorney in Madison, Wisconsin, provided a keynote address entitled Beyond Guilt or Innocence in One Case: Larger Questions that Making a Murderer Invites Us to Consider.

5. RULES FOR FINAL ACTION: (Keisa Williams)

Chief Justice Durrant welcomed Ms. Williams to the meeting.

The Policy and Planning Committee recommended Rule 4-401.03 – Notice to public of recording be approved, as proposed, for final action.

Ms. Williams noted that the rule was effective May 10 but was subject to change upon expiration of the public comment period. She mentioned that no comments were received.

Motion: Judge Higbee moved to approve Rule 4-401.03 with the May 10 effective date. Judge Toomey seconded the motion, and it passed unanimously.

6. PROBLEM SOLVING COURT CERTIFICATIONS: (Judge Dennis Fuchs and Rick Schwermer)

Chief Justice Durrant welcomed Judge Fuchs and Mr. Schwermer to the meeting.

Judge Fuchs reported that all the problem solving courts being considered for certification by the Council are being recommended for certification, with the exception of the Utah County Veteran's Court in the Fourth District, which is being recommended for conditional certification.

Judge Fuchs provided background information on the Utah County Veteran's Court in the Fourth District. He mentioned that the certification is pending, for the next 60 days if conditionally certified, to allow for an acceptable drug and alcohol testing program to be established.

Discussion took place.

Motion: Mr. Lund moved to certify the problem solving courts being recommended for full certification and conditionally certify the Utah County Veteran's Court in the Fourth District to allow for an acceptable drug and alcohol testing program to be established. Judge Higbee seconded the motion. The motion passed with Judge Pullan voting no.

7. JUDICIAL PERFORMANCE EVALUATION COMMISSION UPDATE: (Jennifer Yim and Ann Marie McIff Allen)

Chief Justice Durrant welcomed Ms. Yim and Ms. McIff Allen to the meeting.

Ms. Yim introduced Ms. McIff Allen to members of the Council and provided her background and work experience.

Ms. McIff Allen shared information regarding her experience on the Judicial Performance Evaluation Commission (JPEC).

Ms. Yim and Ms. McIff Allen highlighted the following in their update to the Council: 1) the commission has only met once since the last update, 2) Ms. Yim has or will meet with the court-level boards to get feedback on the judge's perspectives regarding courtroom observations, 3) Mr. Rick Hoffman has been appointed by the Supreme Court to fill the vacancy created by Mr. Eric de DeRosia's departure, 4) Chief Justice Durrant is scheduled to attend the commission's September meeting, 5) follow-up on the request to exclude attorneys from surveys of any attorneys referred to the Office of Professional Conduct by judges is taking place and will be addressed further by the commission, 6) in the process of hiring a new staff member to conduct the justice court mid-level evaluations, 7) an in-person qualitative survey has been developed for use with the justice court mid-level evaluations, and 8) working to improve the data quality.
