

Rule 15-1118. Ex parte communications with the mediator.

1 There shall be no ex parte communication between the parties and the mediator upon the 2 subject matter of the mediation other than necessary communications for scheduling purposes and 3 the mediation proceedings themselves. Any other oral or written communication from the parties 4 to the mediator, or from the mediator to the parties, shall be directed to the Committee for 5 transmittal to the mediator.
