

Rule 15-518. Interim suspension for threat of harm.

1        (a) Transmittal of evidence. Upon receipt of sufficient evidence demonstrating that a licensed
2 paralegal practitioner subject to the disciplinary jurisdiction of the Supreme Court poses a 3 substantial threat of irreparable harm to the public and has either committed a violation of the 4 Rules of Professional Conduct or is under a disability as herein defined, OPC counsel shall file a
5 petition for interim suspension in the district court and give notice in accordance with Utah Rule
6 of Civil Procedure 65A. An action is commenced under this rule when the petition for interim 7 suspension is filed.

8        (b) Immediate interim suspension. After conducting a hearing on the petition, the district 9 court may enter an order immediately suspending the respondent pending final disposition of a 10 disciplinary proceeding predicated upon the conduct causing the harm, or may order such other 11 action as deemed appropriate. If an order is entered:

12        (b)(1) the district court may appoint a trustee, pursuant to Rule 15-527, to protect the 13 interests of the respondent's clients; and

14        (b)(2) the OPC may file a formal complaint in the district court without presenting the matter 15 to a screening panel.

16        (c) Notice to clients. A respondent suspended pursuant to paragraph (b) shall comply with the 17 notice requirements in Rule 15-526 as ordered by the district court.

18        (d) Motion for dissolution of interim suspension. On two days' notice to OPC counsel, a 19 respondent suspended pursuant to paragraph (b) may appear and move for dissolution or 20 modification of the order of suspension, and in that event, the motion shall be heard and 21 determined as expeditiously as the ends of justice require.

Effective November 1, 2018
