

Rule 15-530. Costs.

1 (a) Assessment. The prevailing party in a proceeding on a formal complaint may be awarded
2 judgment for costs in accordance with Rule 54(d) of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure.

3 (b) Offer of discipline by consent. OPC counsel shall not be deemed to have prevailed on any 4 count in the formal complaint unless the sanction imposed exceeds any sanction to which the 5 respondent conditionally consented under Rule 15-520(b) prior to the hearing.

6 (c) Disability cases. Costs shall not be awarded in disability cases except pursuant to 7 paragraph (d).

8 (d) Trusteeship. Court-appointed trustees, including cases in which OPC is appointed the 9 trustee, may collect costs for notification to the respondent's clients, including charges for 10 copying, postage, publication and fees from money collected.
