

Rule 15-710. Administration of the Paralegal Practitioner Examination(s).

1 (a) Paralegal Practitioner Examination(s). The Paralegal Practitioner Examination(s) consists
2 of a multiple choice section on substantive law and a practical application specific to the area(s)
3 of practice selected by the applicant. Areas of practice include (1) temporary separation, divorce,
4 parentage, cohabitant abuse, civil stalking, and custody and support; (2) forcible entry and
5 detainer and unlawful detainer; or; (3) debt collection.

6 (b) All components of the Paralegal Practitioner Examination(s) for an area of practice must
7 be taken in the same examination administration.

8 (c) The Paralegal Practitioner Examination(s) are administered only for the purpose of 9 licensure as a Paralegal Practitioner.

Effective November 1, 2018