

1 Rule 14-714. Unsuccessful Applicants: disclosure and right of inspection.

2 (a) Inspection of the Written Component. The Written Component of the Bar Examination shall
3 be retained for no fewer than six months after the date that examination's results have been
4 announced. An unsuccessful Applicant shall be entitled to a reasonable inspection of the 5 Applicant's answers to the MEE and MPT questions ~~of the examination~~.

6 (b) The MEE and MPT questions and analyses are available from the NCBE.

7 (c) Privileged Information is not subject to disclosure.

8 (d) Inspection of MBE. This rule does not permit an Applicant to inspect MBE questions or her or 9 his answers. Neither copies of the MBE questions nor answers are retained by the Bar.

10 (e) All disclosure under this rule is governed by Rule 14-720.

11 Effective September 1, 2020.