

1 Rule 4B. Case Commenced by Citation.
2

3 (a) If a case commences with the filing of a citation pursuant to Utah Code § 77-7-18, and
4 requires a personal appearance by the defendant before the court, the following procedures apply.

6 (b) If the citation did not specify a time certain for the defendant to appear, the court may
7 schedule a time to appear before the court and provide notice to the defendant by mail, or other
8 means of contact provided with the citation.
9

10 (c) If the defendant timely appears, the court shall proceed under rule 7.
11

12 (d) If the defendant fails to timely appear, as required by the court or the terms of the citation, the 13 court may issue a bench warrant for the defendant's arrest.

15 (e) The court may instruct the prosecutor to file an information that complies with rule 4. Such 16 information need not contain the statement described in rule 4(c). It shall however, include the 17 citation number originally issued the defendant.
