

1 Rule 15. Preliminary inquiry; informal adjustment without petition.

2 ~~(a) If the minor controverts the allegations in the referral or upon request by the minor, the~~
3 ~~effort at nonjudicial adjustment shall terminate.~~

4 (a) If the minor qualifies for a nonjudicial adjustment pursuant to statute, the probation intake
5 officer shall offer a nonjudicial adjustment to the minor.

6 ~~(b) In attempting to determine whether the interests of the minor or the public require that a~~
7 ~~petition be filed, If a minor does not qualify for a nonjudicial adjustment, the probation intake~~
8 officer may conduct one or more interviews with the minor, or if a child, then with the child and 9 at least one of the child's parent, guardian or custodian and may invite the referring party and the 10 victim, if any, to attend or otherwise seek further information from them. Attendance at any such 11 interview shall be voluntary and the probation intake officer may not compel the disclosure of 12 any information or the visiting of any place. ~~A nonjudicial adjustment of the case shall not be~~
13 ~~attempted if the offense or condition alleged in the referral report as a basis for court jurisdiction~~
14 ~~is denied by the minor.~~

15 (c) In any such interview, the minor, or if a child, then the child and the child's parent,
16 guardian or custodian must be advised that the interview is voluntary, that they have a right to 17 have counsel present to represent the minor, that the minor has the right not to disclose any 18 information, and that any information disclosed that could tend to incriminate the minor cannot 19 be used against the minor in court to prove whether the minor committed the offense alleged in 20 the referral ~~but may be used as part of a dispositional recommendation to the court.~~

21 (d) If the probation intake officer concludes on the basis of the preliminary inquiry that 22 nonjudicial adjustment is appropriate and is authorized by law, ~~in such cases by the court,~~ such 23 the officer may seek agreement with the minor, or if a child, then with the child and the child's 24 parent, guardian or custodian to a proposed nonjudicial adjustment.

25 (e) If ~~such~~ an agreement is reached and the terms and conditions agreed upon are 26 satisfactorily complied with by the minor, or if a child, then with the child and the child's parent,

27 guardian or custodian, the case shall be closed without petition. Such resolution of the case shall 28 not be deemed an adjudication of jurisdiction of the court and shall not constitute an official
29 record of juvenile court action or disposition. A nonjudicial adjustment may be considered by the 30 probation intake officer in a subsequent preliminary inquiry and by the court for purposes of 31 disposition only following adjudication of a subsequent delinquency involving the same minor.

32 ~~(e)~~(f) Attempts to ~~affect~~ effect nonjudicial adjustment of a case shall not extend beyond 90
33 days without authorization by the court, and then for no more than an additional 90 days.
