

IN THE FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT
DISTRICT COURT AND JUVENILE COURT
STATE OF UTAH

IN RE:
COVID-19 COURTHOUSE
ACCESS

UPDATED
ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

THE COURT FINDS AS FOLLOWS:

The World Health Organization has declared the COVID-19 outbreak to be a pandemic. Governor Herbert has declared a state of emergency. To protect the public and members of the judiciary, it has become necessary for the judiciary to implement a Pandemic Plan. The courts in the First District are doing our best to follow CDC guidelines in handling cases that must be held during this pandemic outbreak.

Included in the Administrative Order of the Chief Justice Matthew M. Durrant:

“Individuals who show symptoms of COVID-19 or who have been exposed to someone with the symptoms of COVID-19 may not enter courthouses.”

Justice Durrant’s Administrative Order is posted in each courthouse and is available to anyone upon request.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

Defendants, victims, and attorneys who must be present, are directed to adhere to the Administrative Order of Chief Justice Durrant. All others please consider not entering the courthouses. You may not be allowed into the individual courtroom. All who enter this building are required to have and wear face covering in all areas.

DATED THIS THE 11th DAY OF JUNE, 2020.

Angela F. Fonniesbeck, Presiding Judge
First District Court
