ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER (Regarding juvenile court social and/or legal records accessibility to public or private individuals or agencies as deemed necessary for effective services)

Effective September 23, 2024

Pursuant to recent amendments to UCA 80-6-304 and 80-6-607, it is hereby ordered that the probation department is authorized to make juvenile court social and/or legal records accessible to public or private individuals or agencies providing services to the subject of the record or to the subject's family, including services provided pursuant to a nonjudicial adjustment, if the probation officer determines that such access is necessary to provide effective services.
