

Collaborating to Improve Educational Outcomes

Jackie Leedy-Chamberlain
State Education Liaison

utah department of human services

BRAIDED FUNDING

utah department of
human services

"Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world."

CINDY MOLINAR

“Had it not been for education,
I wouldn’t be successful. School is everything to me.”

KEEP CALM
THERE'S A PARADIGM SHIFT GOING ON

67% Receive High School Diplomas

3 to 9% Receive College Degrees

36% Receive Special Education Services

High Mobility Rates

8 Schools on Average

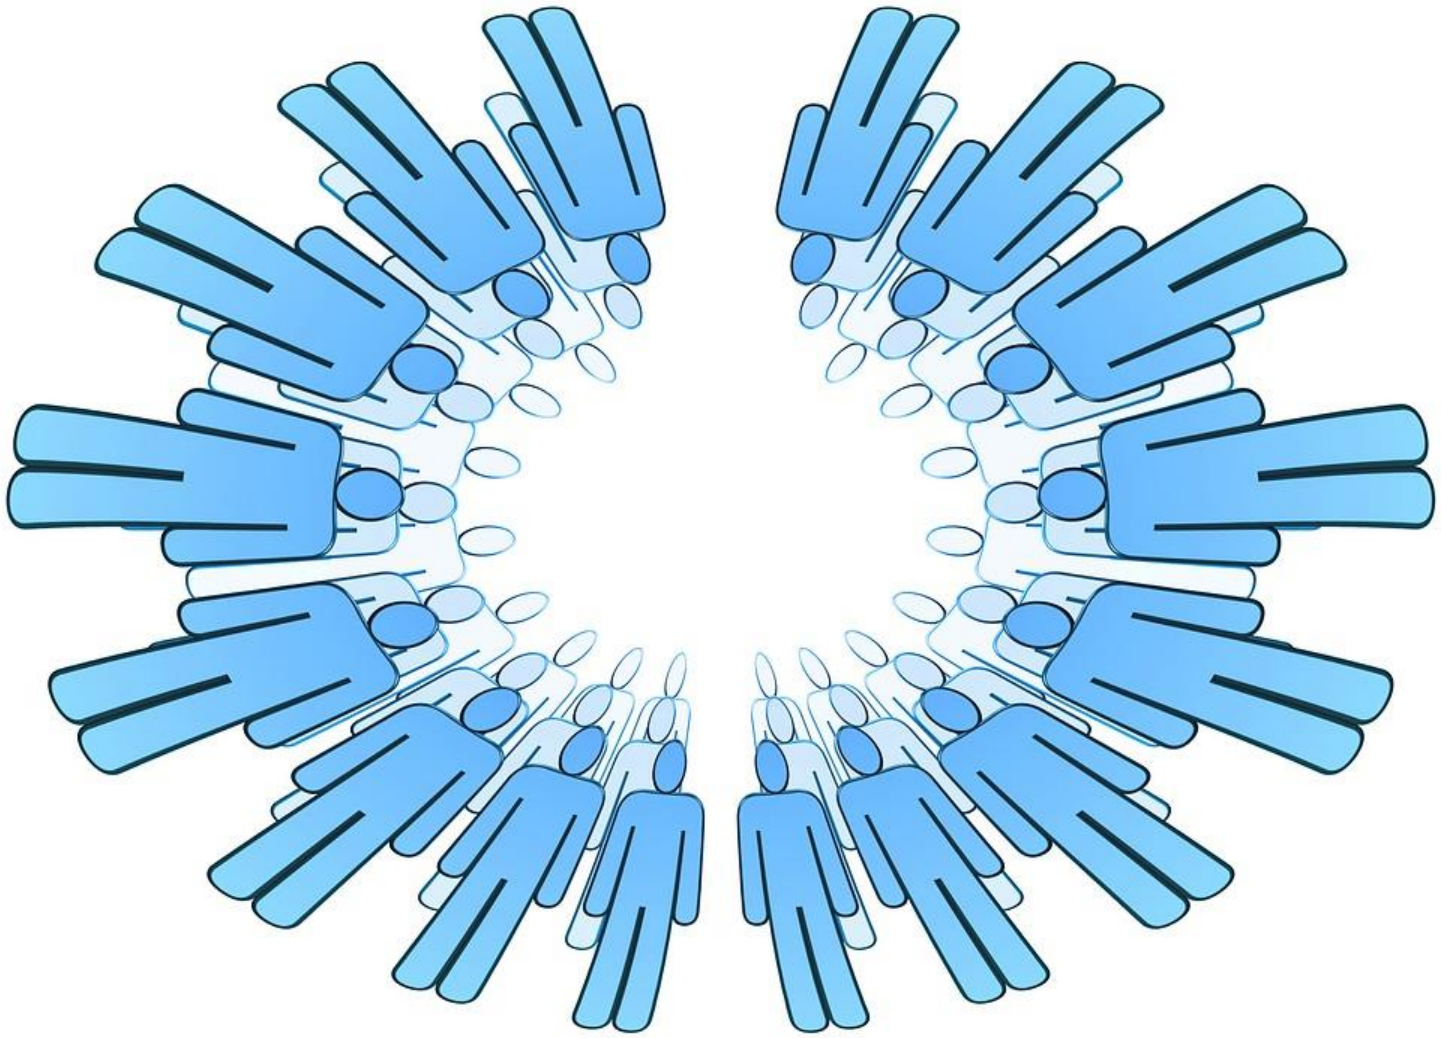

MILEAGE

EDUCATING YOUTH IN STATE CARE

Coordinated efforts between agencies can make a difference and ensure educational success in the lives of children in foster care and youth involved in juvenile justice services.

This section can help you see how your role interconnects with other agencies and give you the resources you need when interacting with them.

Print Educating Youth in State Care

PRINT NOW

MAP OF CONTACTS

Donec id elit non mi porta gravida at eget metus. Nullam quis risus eget urna mollis ornare vel eu leo. Nullam quis risus eget urna mollis ornare vel eu leo.

SEE MAP

EDUCATION SERVICES

Youth in custody may encounter numerous barriers to school success. By working together, schools, Child and Family Services, and Juvenile Justice Services can understand the unique situations and experiences of children in care.

LEARN MORE

Ask Questions!

What do you want to be when you grow up?

What are your goals?

How are you going to get there?

You matter!

You can do it!

Focus on school!

