Judge or Commissioner (Juez o Comisionado): _____

At the hearing the court will decide whether to appoint a conservator, who the conservator will be, and what authority the conservator will have. The respondent has the following rights:

- the right to attend the hearing;
- the right to choose his or her own attorney;
- the right to nominate a conservator;
- the right to limit the conservator's authority to that needed for protection;
- the right to receive written reasons for appointing a conservator;
- the right to request that the hearing be open or closed to the public;
- the right to present evidence;
- the right to ask questions of witnesses;
- the right to be examined by a court-appointed physician;
- the right to be interviewed by a court-appointed visitor and to ask that the visitor interview the proposed conservator;

The respondent and any person interested in the respondent have the right to ask the court for a hearing to end the conservatorship, to appoint a different conservator, or to change the conservator's authority.

If a conservator is appointed, the conservator will make decisions about the respondent's property.

Attendance

You must attend. If you do not attend, you might be held in contempt of court and the relief requested might be granted. You have the right to be represented by a lawyer.
