are the respondent's parents, or two people who share joint legal decision-making authority over the respondent.

are _____
(describe relationship to the respondent)

7. The court should appoint the guardian because: (Choose one.)

the guardian is highest in priority established by statute.

There is good cause not to follow the statutory priority because:

8. There is clear and convincing evidence that the respondent's ability to:

receive and evaluate information; or make and communicate decisions; or provide for necessities such as food, shelter, clothing, health care, or safety is impaired to the extent that s/he lacks the ability, even with appropriate technological assistance, to meet the essential requirements for financial protection or physical health, safety, or self-care.

9. The respondent has the following functional limitations, and a guardian is necessary or desirable as a means of providing the respondent with continuing care and supervision:

Choose paragraph 10 or 11, but not both.

10.  Limited guardianship.

The respondent requires a guardian with limited authority to: (Choose all that apply.)

- make decisions about the respondent's custody and residence;
- make decisions about the respondent's training and education;
- provide for the respondent's care, comfort, and maintenance;
- take reasonable care of the respondent's clothing, furniture, vehicles, and other personal effects;
- commence protective proceedings if the respondent's property needs protection;
- give consent necessary to enable the respondent to receive medical or other professional care, counsel, treatment, or service;
- institute proceedings to compel a person to perform their duty to support the respondent;
- receive money and tangible property deliverable to the respondent and apply the money and property for the respondent's support, care, and education;
- other (Describe additional authority that the guardian should have.)

11.  Full guardianship.

The respondent requires a guardian with plenary or full authority because no alternative exists and nothing less than a full guardianship is adequate to provide the respondent with continuing care and supervision.

12.  The report about the respondent written by a physician or psychologist satisfies the requirements of Utah Code 75-5-317.

The court concludes:

- 13. The respondent is an incapacitated person and a guardianship is necessary or desirable as a means of providing the respondent with continuing care and supervision.
- 14. The respondent requires a guardian: (Choose one.)
 with limited authority as provided in paragraph 10.
 with plenary or full authority.
- 15. _____
(name of guardian(s)) is a competent person or suitable institution to be the respondent's guardian.
- 16.  This order should be immediately effective upon the respondent's 18th birthday, which is _____ (date).
