Utah law requires the following:

- A joint physical custody arrangement may result in denial of cash assistance under the Employment Support Act, Title 35A, Chapter 3, of the Utah Code.
- The objectives of a parenting plan are to:
 - provide for the children's physical care and emotional stability;
 - provide for the children's changing needs in a way that minimizes the need to change the parenting plan;
 - minimize the children's exposure to conflict between the parents;
 - state the authority and responsibilities of each parent to the children;
 - encourage the parents to meet their responsibilities to their children through agreement rather than judicial decision; and

- protect the best interests of the children.
- Each parent must follow the parenting plan even if the other does not. If a parent does not follow the parenting plan, the court may find that parent in contempt of court.
- For further guidance, see Utah Code 30-3-33
