2. Child custody

All orders involving children will include two types of custody: physical custody and legal custody.

Physical custody deals with where the children live and how many overnights the children spend with each parent.

Sole physical custody means that the children live primarily with one parent and have parent time (visitation) with the other parent (see parent-time options in Section 3).

Joint physical custody means that the children typically spend at least 30% of overnights with both parents each year and that both parents contribute to the expenses of the child in addition to paying child support.

Split physical custody means that where there is more than one child, each parent is awarded sole physical custody of at least one of the children.

Legal custody deals with access to information and decision making.

Sole legal custody means that one parent has the right to make important decisions about the child.

Joint legal custody means that both parents: (1) have the right to information about the child (events, appointments, access to school and medical records, etc.); and (2) that both parents discuss and make major decisions together – (education, religion, medical, extra-curricular activities, etc.) but designate a parent to make the final decision if they cannot agree.

I ask the court to order temporary custody below (Choose one. If you ask for any joint legal custody or joint physical custody arrangement, you must file or attach a Parenting Plan based on Utah Code 30-3-10.7 to 30-3-10.10.):

7. Child care expenses

I ask the court to order that both parties share equally the reasonable child care expenses related to the custodial parent's work or occupational training.

The parent who pays child care expenses must immediately provide to the other parent written verification of the cost of the child care expenses and the identity of the child care provider when hired, within 30 calendar days after a change in the provider or the expense, and anytime upon the request of the other parent.

If the parent who pays child care expenses fails to provide written verification of child care above, that parent may be denied the right to recover or receive credit for the other parent's one-half share of the child care expense.

The other parent must begin paying one-half the child care amount on a monthly basis immediately after receiving proof from the parent that pays the child care expense.

Other request for child care payment:

8. Health insurance, medical and dental expenses

Our minor children currently have health insurance coverage through:

 - b. all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical and dental expenses incurred for the children and paid by a parent, including deductibles and co-payments.

The parent ordered to maintain insurance must provide written verification of coverage to the other parent or the Office of Recovery Services when the children are first enrolled, on or before January 2nd of each calendar year and upon any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within 30 calendar days after the date that parent knew or should have known of the change.

If the parent ordered to maintain insurance fails to provide written verification of coverage to the other parent or to the Office of Recovery Services, or if the parent incurring medical expenses fails to provide written verification of the cost and payment of the expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment, that parent may be denied the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses.

The parent receiving written verification will reimburse the parent who incurred the medical or dental expenses one-half of the amount within 30 days after receiving the written verification.

I ask for this order because (Choose all that apply.):

- the insurance is available to petitioner respondent;
- the cost of the insurance is reasonable
- the custodial parent prefers this arrangement.
- Other reasons:

I ask for these additional orders regarding health insurance and medical and dental expenses:
