You have committed a criminal nuisance because:

You are required to vacate the premises within three calendar days, counting weekends and holidays.

If you do not comply with this notice, you will be served with a Summons and Complaint for unlawful detainer. Unlawful detainer is when you remain in possession of rental property after the owner serves you with a lawful notice to leave, such as this eviction notice. If you are found by the court to be in unlawful detainer, you will be evicted by the court and you will be liable for:

- (1) any rent due and unpaid through the end of your rental agreement, less any amounts the landlord receives from the next tenant;
- (2) damages caused by your unlawful detainer of the rental property;
- (3) damages for any waste of the rental property caused by you, if and only if the landlord alleges them in a court complaint and proves them at trial, or submit them to the court by affidavit in the event of your default. (Waste is damage you cause beyond normal wear and tear.);
- (4) damages as provided in Utah Code §78B-6-1107 through 1114 for the abatement of nuisance, if any, caused by you. (Abatement of nuisance means to stop a nuisance.);
- (5) attorney's fees and court costs.

You will also be liable for three times those damages allowed to be trebled under Utah Code §78B-6-811 which specifically may include trebling all of those damages mentioned above except attorney's fees and court costs. Damages under (2) are the reasonable rental value or reasonable rental value of the use an occupation of the premises for each day you remain after the expiration of this notice. In most cases trebling damages under (2) means the court will times the amount you have been paying for rent by three for every day you remain in the property after the last day you were given to leave under this eviction notice.

Please contact your landlord to discuss this situation.
