3 Under Utah Code § 78B-7-404, the court cannot issue a protective order unless the court determines that you and the Respondent have or had a dating relationship. In making this determination, the court will consider the following factors:

- a. whether you and the Respondent developed interpersonal bonding above a mere casual fraternization;
- b. the length of your relationship with the Respondent;
- c. the nature and the frequency of the interactions between you and the Respondent, including communications indicating that you and the Respondent intended to begin a dating relationship;
- d. the ongoing expectations you and/or the Respondent had with respect to the relationship;
- e. whether the statements or conduct by you and the Respondent demonstrated an affirmation of your relationship to others; and
- f. whether other reasons exist that support or detract from a finding that a dating relationship exists.

Using those factors, explain why you believe you and the Respondent have or had a dating relationship.
