

Rule 15-1109. Ex parte communication between the parties and the panel members.

1        There shall be no communication between the parties and the members of the panel upon the
2 subject matter of the arbitration other than the necessary notices and arbitration proceedings. Any 3 other oral or written communication from the parties to the members of the panel, or from the
4 members of the panel to the parties, shall be directed to the Bar office for transmittal.

Effective November 1, 2018