

Rule 15-508. Periodic assessment of licensed paralegal practitioners.

1 (a) Annual licensing fee. Every licensed paralegal practitioner licensed to practice in Utah
2 shall pay to the Bar on or before July 1 of each year an annual license fee for each fiscal year to 3 be fixed by the Board from time to time and approved by the Supreme Court. The fee shall be 4 sufficient to pay the costs of disciplinary administration and enforcement under this article.

5 (b) Failure to renew annual license. Failure to pay the annual licensing fee or provide the 6 required annual licensing information shall result in administrative suspension. Any licensed 7 paralegal practitioner who practices law after failure to renew his or her license violates the 8 Licensed Paralegal Practitioner Rules of Professional Conduct and may be disciplined. The 9 executive director or his or her designee shall give notice of such removal from the rolls to such 10 non-complying licensed paralegal practitioner at the designated mailing address on record at the 11 Bar and to the state courts in Utah. The non-complying licensed paralegal practitioner r may 12 apply in writing for relicensure by tendering the license fees and/or the required information and 13 an additional $100 reinstatement fee. Upon receiving the same, the Bar shall order relicensure 14 and so notify the courts. Relicensure based on failure to renew does not negate any orders of 15 discipline.
